

Attendance Rules

Document No: SIET/ATT/2026/02 | Effective: Academic Year 2026-27

1. Minimum Attendance Requirement

1.1 A student must have a minimum of 75% attendance in each course (theory and laboratory) to be eligible to write the end-semester examination.

1.2 Attendance is calculated separately for every course as: $(\text{Hours attended} / \text{Total hours conducted}) \times 100$.

2. Condonation of Shortage

Attendance Range	Status	Requirement
75% and above	Eligible	None
65% to below 75%	Condonation possible	Valid reason, medical certificate if applicable, and a condonation fee of Rs. 250 per course
Below 65%	Not eligible	Student must repeat the course in a later semester ("Detained")

1.3 Condonation is allowed a maximum of two times during the entire programme.

1.4 Applications for condonation must be submitted to the HoD within 5 working days after the last instructional day.

3. Attendance Marks (Internal Assessment)

Attendance	Marks (out of 5)
95% and above	5
90% to below 95%	4
85% to below 90%	3
80% to below 85%	2
75% to below 80%	1

4. On-Duty (OD) Attendance

4.1 OD is granted for college-approved activities: sports meets, technical symposiums, paper presentations, and NSS/NCC camps.

4.2 OD requests must be approved by the HoD before the event, and proof of participation must be submitted within 3 days after.

4.3 OD hours are counted as present, with a maximum of 10% of total hours per semester.

5. Late Arrival

5.1 Students arriving more than 10 minutes after the period begins are marked absent for that period.

5.2 Three late arrivals in a month are counted as one full-day absence.

6. Biometric and Proxy Attendance

6.1 Attendance is recorded through the biometric system at the start of the first period and by faculty for subsequent periods.

6.2 Proxy attendance is a serious offence. Both students involved face a fine of Rs. 1,000 and a one-week suspension.

7. Display of Attendance

7.1 Faculty advisors publish attendance monthly. Students can view real-time attendance on the college ERP portal.
