

Leave Policy

Document No: SIET/LEV/2026/06 | Applies to: Students (Section A) and Teaching Faculty (Section B)

Section A: Student Leave

1. Types of Leave

Type	Maximum Duration	Approval Authority
Casual Leave	2 days at a time, 6 days per semester	Class Advisor
Medical Leave	As per medical certificate	HoD
On-Duty (OD)	As per event	HoD
Maternity / Special Leave (women students)	Up to 60 days	Principal
Bereavement Leave	Up to 7 days	HoD

2. Application Procedure

2.1 Apply through the ERP portal or a written leave letter at least 1 day in advance for planned leave.

2.2 For emergencies, parents must inform the Class Advisor by phone or email on the same day.

2.3 Leave for 3 or more days requires a parent's signature on the leave letter.

3. Medical Leave

3.1 A medical certificate from a registered medical practitioner must be submitted within 3 days of rejoining.

3.2 Medical leave of more than 10 days requires approval from the Principal.

3.3 Medical leave does not exempt a student from the 75% attendance rule, but may support a condonation request.

4. Leave During Examinations

4.1 Leave is not granted during CATs or end-semester exams except for medical emergencies with supporting proof.

Section B: Faculty Leave

5. Entitlements (per academic year)

Type	Days
Casual Leave (CL)	12
Earned Leave (EL)	15 (for staff on 12-month contract)
Medical Leave	10 days with certificate
Maternity Leave	26 weeks (as per statutory provisions)
Paternity Leave	10 days
Special Casual Leave (conference / FDP)	10 days

5.1 Casual leave cannot be combined with more than 3 consecutive days of other leave without the Principal's approval.

5.2 Faculty must arrange substitution for their classes and get the HoD's approval before taking leave.

5.3 Unapproved absence is treated as Loss of Pay (LOP).

6. Leave Encashment

6.1 Unused EL can be carried forward up to 30 days and encashed at the time of resignation or retirement.

7. Holidays

7.1 The academic calendar lists all public holidays, restricted holidays, and vacation periods. Restricted holidays: any 2 per year may be availed.
